

Commutes are now less common in the UK, but podcast listening is still on the rise

Article

For more insights and key statistics on the biggest trends in today's most disruptive industries, subscribe to our Chart of the Day newsletter.

In the UK, 13.3 million people tuned in to podcasts in 2020, surpassing our pre-pandemic expectation by nearly 2 million despite many consumers' commutes being limited to a trip from the bed to their desk and back again.

How Has Our Forecast for UK Podcast Listeners Changed?

millions, 2019-2024

Note: internet users of any age who listen to a podcast via direct download or livestream on any device at least once per month
Source: eMarketer, Feb 2021

263387

eMarketer | InsiderIntelligence.com

More like this:

- Article: The impressive resilience of digital audio
- Audio: Behind 'Behind the Numbers': How our podcast got started
- Report: UK Programmatic Digital Display Advertising Outlook 2021