

Over a third of US adults don't use mobile payment systems

Article

For more insights and key statistics on the biggest trends in today's most disruptive industries, subscribe to our Chart of the Day newsletter.

In the US, 37% of adults don't use mobile payment systems, but among those who do, one has a commanding lead: 39% of US adults use PayPal, while only 15% use rival Venmo and even fewer (12%) use Zelle.

More like this:

- Article: PayPal achieves record volume in Q1 and reveals plans for super app
- Article: Zelle’s small-business transaction volume surged 180% in Q1, aiding overall business growth
- Article: Fiserv lets merchants accept PayPal and Venmo QR code payments